

Supporting Resilient Livelihoods, Food Security and Climate adaptation in Yemen Joint Programme

Last Updated: September 2023

PROJECT INFORMATION

(ERRY III) is a 3-year programme co-funded by the European Union (EU) and Government of Sweden.

Objectives

The overall objective is that crisis affected communities are better able to manage local risks and shocks for increased resilience and self-reliance.

SNAPSHOT

US$ 49.3 million

Ends in February 2025

40% women

WHERE WE ARE

IMPACT SO FAR

326 Village Cooperative Councils (VCCs) established or reactivated to define community needs

50 Sub-district Development Committees (SDCs) formed in 11 districts

716 SDC members trained in resilience planning, including 47% women

50 Community Resilience Plans (CRPs) developed at the sub-district level

308 Community Resilience Plans (CRPs) developed at the village level

407 self-help initiatives implemented at the village level

35 compact initiatives are being implemented

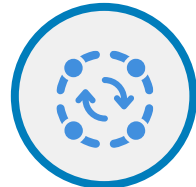

3 community small-scale projects implemented in health, education, and water sectors

612 SDC members, including 325 women, trained as mediators

73 community consultants, including 29 women, received training in social cohesion and mediation

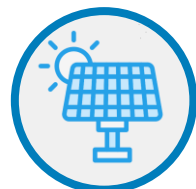

35 conflict scans conducted in 35 sub-districts to address conflicts effectively

55 community dialogues conducted to resolve conflicts peacefully

36 community members trained in solar systems operation and maintenance

15 public services including schools, healthcare facilities were provided with solar energy systems

IMPACT SO FAR

114 community assets established through UNDP & WFP interventions

29 community-based assets established through C4W activities of UNDP livelihoods component

50 Community Animal Health Workers (CAHW) trained and provided with veterinary kits with support of FAO

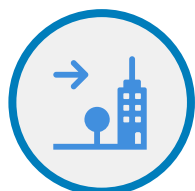

Over 3,350 people, including, 38% women, generated income through emergency employment

30 crops, livestock, dairy farmer field Schools were established with the support of FAO

2 water desalination plants established to help reserve groundwater

44 community assets have been rehabilitated through WFP Food Assistance for Assets (FFA)

2,160 households received Food/Cash through WFP Food Assistance for Assets (FFA)

A total amount of $1,174,843 has been transferred to targeted beneficiaries as part of WFP FFA component.

1200 increased their knowledge in business development and life skills through ILO & UNDP Livelihood and Apprenticeship programme

720 of C4W and FFA beneficiaries certified in market-relevant technical skills, with the support of ILO , WFP

1430 of dairy producers supported with training and dairy equipment with support of FAO

6000 farmers provided with inputs (seeds, training, marketing support) to improve agriculture value chains with support of FAO

1430 dairy producers supported with training and dairy equipment with support of FAO