

Eligibility

The competition is open to all Malaysian and Malaysia residents.

General guidelines

1. Choose powerful and visually appealing photographs that showcase the lives, culture, traditions, and contributions of indigenous people in Malaysia. Ensure that the images reflect the theme of the competition and highlight the connection between the past, present, and future.
2. Develop a series of 2 to 4 photographs that collectively tell a compelling story about the indigenous people's journey across time.
3. Provide one short narrative caption (up to 100 words) that adds depth and context to the series of images. The captions should explain the significance of the photo in relation to the theme and the broader story you are trying to convey.
4. The description can be written in Bahasa Malaysia, English or Indigenous language, and the use of indigenous languages is encouraged. However, if you are using Indigenous language, you must provide a translation either in Bahasa Malaysia or English.
5. Follow the submission guidelines provided by the competition organizers.
